

Addendum for Nominations 2009

NOMINATIONS. Any player nominated for a team at the start of the season should be expected to play at least one match for that team during that season.

The committee has the discretion to decide on individual players in the event of injury etc.

The penalty for breaching the rule would be deduction of 12 points, this to be applied at the end of the season.